

From: Cathy.Wicks@state.mn.us
Sent: Monday, August 07, 2006 5:29 PM
To: Hardt, Diane L; Stephen Kranz
Subject: Draft Definition of fur Clothing

Here is the draft definition of fur clothing as you requested.

"Fur Clothing" is defined as articles of clothing where fur on the hide or pelt is a component material. The term "fur" means any animal skin or part of an animal skin with hair, fleece or fur fibers attached to it. It does not include leather, suede or any other animal skins where the hair, fleece, or fur fiber is completely removed.

Cathy Wicks, Assistant Director
Corporate and Sales Tax Division
Minnesota Department of Revenue
600 North Robert Street
St. Paul, MN 55146-6300
cathy.wicks@state.mn.us
651-556-6818