Section 1102: RELATIONSHIP TO STATE LAW

No provision of the Agreement in whole or part invalidates or amends any provision of the law of a member state. Adoption of the Agreement by a member state does not amend or modify any law of the state. Implementation of any condition of the Agreement in a member state, whether adopted before, at, or after membership of a state, must be by the action of the member state. All member states remain subject to Article VIII.
